Coach's Comments

In a rare scheduling occurrence, we have Sheffield Steelers in here for a 2nd time in a row when they drop in on Sunday, and as we did last weekend, prior to their visit, we trek to Scotland first with a stop at Dundee Stars Saturday night. We are unquestionably in the roughest patch of the season in the win-loss column. It has been a tough stretch after hanging in very well over many weeks of playing shorthanded. We have had a few more bodies back now in the last few games, but we have not had the results we were seeking. This is part of the sport, and the one thing I know we have to do is keep working hard until we find our way out of the trench. We have a lot of guys who care about each and every outcome, and we are going to have to dig in here and hopefully kick things off in Scotland with a win. There are no easy nights in this league so our attitude, our work ethic and our dedication to execution are going to be the tools that get us back on the path. There are not all that many games left now as we work our way down the final stretch and into the playoffs, so we want to make the most of what is ahead. Points this weekend would be a good start and that's the goal. We look forward to the obstacles ahead, and we hope you can be with us for one or both of the upcoming games.
