Coach's Comments

For those of you on site last weekend you probably went away very disappointed with a last minute loss to Belfast Giants after opening the home double with a win over Fife. All of us were gutted that we were not able to at least get to overtime to put away a point. It was a gut punch to give up 2 goals in a matter of seconds which turned out they needed because we were able to last second reply even though it didn't change the outcome. The whole situation as it turned out was hard to accept, but that's how it went. It is a new weekend coming up here and there are important points on the line. We have yet to succeed in Sheffield this season and we need to be up for a very good team that is in the race for the league title and plays very well at home. It would be nice to be coming home to Dundee Stars with a chance to make it a full weekend point haul, but words are easy and productive action is a lot harder. We hope you enjoy the weekend ahead and hopefully we can turn in some wins in the coming games.

CONGRATULATIONS TO JOHN WINNER OF THE SUPPORTERS SHIRT RAFFLE.
